Only one point behind Hendrickson came J, W. Garrett of Coiorado Springs, one of the crack amateur shots of the west. The shoot was held on the Travers Island grounds of the New York Athletic club, and brought out forty-eight con-testants. As a counter attraction there was a special shoot for professinals in which eight men took part, William Herr of Kansas being the winner with the rec-ord of 96 out of a possible 100. He was the only professional who beat the best amateurs.

amateurs.

The shooting committee of the New York Athletic club managed the affair. Three traps were used and the men were divided into twelve squads. There was practically no wind, but the sun made a strong glare over the water, which was rather trying on the eyes.

Only four men made straight scores of 25. Hendrickson made one in his third string. Garrett made a grand finish, getting every bird in his last string. H. W. Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 15.-Kid Herman of Chicago tonight beat Eddie Hanlon geies team won the Pacific Coast league of San Francisco in the flereest twentyyesterday by Vice President Zehring of the Western Bowling congress from Section 2. There was not a moment from start to out of the nine post-season games to be the Western Bowling congress from Secretary A. L. Jenkins. It came in response to an urgent request from the bowlers of Salt Lake that this city be informed at once whether the annual bowling tournament is to be held here or not.

Salt Lake and Tacoma are in the field for this event in the western bowling world, and while it has been felt all along that Salt Lake would win the prize, yet the bowlers of this city think the question should be settled before any move is made to prepare for the tourney. At a meeting of bowlers held in this city some lime ago Mr. Jenkins was advised as 19 the status of affairs here and asked to have the question settled at once.

In reply to this request a telegram was sent to Vice President Zehring and an answer to the manual tournament, and has received assurance from enough of the mine post-season games to be played with Tacoma for the distribution, and every can be garden and every can be garden and every continued to the proposed to the proposed to solled from enough at the contest, lianlon appearing to have the charman last and will attract bowlers from all over the west. The committee for this purpose has already been named and is only awaiting word from Mr. Jenkins.

Mishing again." Such was the remark made vesterday by J. W. Shipler, the king of Utah's fishermen. Yesterday with nessed the closing of this year's fishing season, and six months hence, June 15, it will open again. Until that time the large colony of Salt Lake fishermen will patiently count the days until the law again gives them permission to whip the mountain streams for the speckled beauties. Mr. Shipler is easily the leader of this colony, and it is safe to bet that he can at a moment's notice give anyone the exact number of days intervening before the fishing season rolls around again.

Two divorces were granted in the district court yesterday by Judge Arm-strong. Katherine M. Blair was given her freedom from James B. Blair. The decree gives the household furniture, $25 he plaintiff. Originally the suit in the plaintiff. Originally the suit included the Ogden State bank, but the action against the bank was dismissed. Martha H. Williams was given a divorce from Peter C. Williams. The decree gives the plaintiff the custody of the four minor children, the household property and 329 per month alimony.

In the suit of the Ogden Waterworks company vs. Isaac Farr, arguments were heard, and the case submitted to the jury, which later returned a verdict of no cause for action, thus sustaining the verdict rendered in the lower court.

The libel suit of George Halverson vs. William Glasmann et al. came before the court on the demurrer made by the defendants to the complaint. Arguments were heard and the matter was taken under advisement by the court.

The case of Charles Urry vs. Willard A. Skeen was dismissed on motion of counsel for the plaintiff.

The case of J. P. O'Neill vs. the Simmons Hardware company, an action to recover damages for an alleged breach of contract, occupied the rest of the session, after which it was continued until Monday morning. The action is to recover damages of $515.03, claimed to be due by failure of the defendants to carry out the terms of a contract for the delivery of forty-five carioads of stone. cluded the Ogden State bank, but the

JENNINGS TO BE TRIED.

Will Be Brought From State Prison to Ogden.

The warrant for the appearance of Carl Jennings in the district court on Wednesday at 2 o'clock has been served on Jennings, who is serving a year's sentence in the state penitentiary for house breaking. The description sent out by the Salt Lake authorities at the time of his arrest led to the belief that he was the man wanted for robbing the Ogden Knitting mill, for which he will now stand trial. The crime for which he is now serving a sentence was committed shortly after the knitting factory robbery in Ogden.
